

Sponsor a Young@Heart Chorus Member

A group of unlikely rockers, the Young@Heart chorus was started in the 1980s as a creative outlet for a group of seniors at a community center in Northampton, Massachusetts.

With an average age of 80, the 25-member chorus comprises an eclectic and endearing bunch of oldsters with a zest for life and enthusiasm for music. They also inspire with their upbeat attitudes and willingness to embrace the new and unfamiliar.

Performing songs by everyone from James Brown to the Clash and Coldplay, they've toured internationally as well as performed live on Ellen and Jay Leno. Singing songs they shouldn't know, at an age when they're expected to be sitting somewhere, they subvert all accepted notions of young and old.

We are seeking your support to underwrite the expenses of bringing the 25-member chorus to Boulder County for a public concert in the fall of 2009 in celebration of Special Transit's 30th Anniversary. Your $1,000 contribution will help to cover the costs of one chorus member's airfare, food and lodging for two nights. While the chorus members are not paid and are proud to volunteer for the Y@H, a performance fee covers musicians, technicians and administrators.
